What Potomac Water is Doing to Washington.

Alexandria County's New Sheriff Starts the Reform Work.

JACKSON CITY DRY AS DUST

All Saloon-keepers Notified That They Must Keep Their Places Closed on Sundays-Harry Candler Soured on the World-Even Evangelist Matchett Deprived of His Hall.

Scarcely a week has clapsed since Sheriff Palmer, of Alexandria county took the oath of office and entered up his duties, and already his work of reform has begun. Saturday evening, accom-panied by one of his deputies, he visited the salson keepers of Jackson City, and in a terse, business-like wsy, notified them that when the first slauting rays of the Sabbath sun gilded the old Potomac, every saloon in the town must be tightly closed He further announced that he expected this condition of affairs to exist throughout the day, and even to keep up Sunday

The sheriff didn't act or look as though he made these modest requests in a joking way, so the rum sellers thought it best to obey. As a result an atmosphere of purch-ing dryness hovered over Mud street, Jackson City's only thoroughfare, and the regular contingent who lounge there on Sundays were going around with disgu-

A great many visitors from the city took part in the celebration, male and female admirers of Candler and his ac quitted friend, going over by the back full. Perhaps Saturday night's entertainment accounted for the sloppy condition of the bar yesterday.

Harry Candler himself has experienced a change of heart toward all the world since Marion Brandon, his colored cook, was sentenced to minety days in fall by Judge Cele for contempt of court. His once cheerful disposition seems soured, and he no longer greets the reporters with a smile

MISSIONARY MATCHETT SHUT OUT. He has even gone back on Matchett's mission, and When that enterprising evange list knocked at the door yesterday fore-noon, expecting to be admitted in order to deliverhisusualsermon, the only answer was an echo of his knock. He gazed around and saw that the brilliantly painted sign-board that has for several weeks past heraided Matchett's Mission to the world, was missing. Then he walked sadly up the rail road track to where the freight cars threw a shadow on the mud, and with only his bald head between him and the sun, he preached the gospel to the crowd of loafers, half of whom were asleep.

Mr. Matchett has also started Sunday services at Waterloo Station, about a mile the other side of Jackson City, and every Sunday in the future he and his helpers will hold forth in true Methodist style. A Sunday-school will also be started next Sunday, as several of the colored families in the neighborhood of the brick yards have requested his aid in this direction.

Mr. Matchett said that one of his converts, Lee Candier, Harry's brother, will join the colored families.

church on probation this week. He has almost given up hopes of converting Harry, to be brought into the fold. His gettle ways and wiming smile have deserted him, he thinks he has been treated badly, and he doesn't believe in religion, anyhow. REFORM AT ROSLYN.

Sheriff Palmer's reforming influence was felt at Roslyn yesterday, as well as at the railroad resort at the end of the Long Bridge. The saloons were closed, the gambling houses were closed, the beater track leading to the policy dens were untrod and altogether the decent inhabitants of the place experienced a day of peaceful rest. There were no drunken brawls such as frequently disturb the Sunday quiet of the place, no shouting negroes staggered through the streets, and no fleeced victims through the streets, and no neeced victims of the gambler's wiles wended their way sadily down the Potonac side as they were wont to do in Sundays gone by.

The boats running to Dixie's landing did a good business, but their loads were composed of pleasure seekers of a different sort. Few were seeking to buck the tiger or acquire jars, and those few were dis-appointed. Of course liquor could be procured, and it would take weeks of caru est effort on the part of the new sheriff to oring things to such a state that it cannot be produced, but, altogether, the day was freer from draukenness and disorder than it has been for many Sundays past. Sheriff Palmer has evidently started out not to disappoint the element that se-cured his election and defeated Veitch. That his good work may go on is the deout prayer of every respectable citizen o

SEVERAL NARROW ESCAPES

Torrents of Rain Fell in Chicago and Wind and Lightning Swept the City-Pan-Handle Signal Tower BlownOverand Its Occupant Futally Injured-Reports from Wisconsin.

Chicago, July 7 .- One of the most furious wind and rain sterms known in this vicinity for years passed over the city about 6 o'clock this evening, coming from the northwest. The day had been in tensely hot and there were many people out on the take in sailbents, and as the storm came very suddenly it is feared that several lives were lost.

The different life-maying crews have been busy all evening tracing rumors of capsized boats, people chinging to planks, etc., and up to 10 p. m. have brought in the occupants of three capsized boats, all in a very exhausted condition. No trace of any others has been found up to this hour and it is loped that no more are out. The police at the Cortage Grove avenue station on the south side claim that they distinctly saw a sail boat with three occugale and that nothing was seen again during daylight

NO TRACES FOUND The life-savers (*) in the South Side cruise about that locality for some time, but ound no traces of a wreck. It is probable that more missing persons will be reported from the various suburbs at a later hour. Up to within twenty minutes of the nt of the storm upon the city the sky had been clear and the sun shining brightly. Suddenly heavy black clouds begaute gather in the northwest and a few minutes later a terrific gale of wind, accompanied by a perfect flood of rain and furious thunder and lightning, was sweeping over the city. Many basements were flooded all over the

At the height of the storm, a signal to beside the Panhandle tracks, at Adec street, was blown over and the tower-man, August Boedlow, sustained fatal injuries. Several others were reported painfully cut and bruised by flying debris At 11 p. m. the police and life-savers think that all the missing boats, both row boats and sail boats, are accounted for, al-though it is possible that a few may yet be out.

Determined Effort to Enforce Excise Law Crowned with General Success-Boat and Hotel Bars Closed.

New York, July 7 - To-day in police parlance was a dry Sunday. That is, according to the police, the saloons were closed and the excise laws were being enforced

This, however, was not strictly true. A stranger in New York might travel the whole city over without being able to quench his thirst, but the man who knew the bartender or the saloon-keeper or the "man at the door" had no need to go thirsty. The police, however, made a determined effort to enforce the laws, and doubtless the aloons were as tightly shut as they can e closed during the operations of the pres
